The Weather.

KENTUCKY—Fair and warmer
Tuesday.

Mr. Bryan delivered his lecture
"The Prince of Peace" at Colon, Panama, Friday night.

Kaiser Wilhelm's behind the movement to have a German aviator try to reach the north pole in a Zeppelin airship next summer. He will start from Spitzbergen with two airships, one to support the other, and expects to make the trip and return in two days, a distance of 500 miles.

Senator Vise, of Bath county, has introduced the much talked of unit bill that will seek to extend the operations of the county unit law to counties containing cities of the first second, third and fourth classes.
The bill is said to be doomed to defeat in the Senate, most of the 26 Democrats being opposed to agitation of the prohibition question just now, while the Democratic party shows signs of getting together for the coming State campaign.

Things are warming up at Washington and politics will from now on hold the front page in the papers.
The row over Gifford, Pinchot's not charges against Secretary Ballinger, growing out of frauds in the Forestry bureau, culminating in Pinchot's dismissal from the bureau and a resolution to investigate Ballinger. The plan to whitewash him was nipped in the bud by the insurgent Republicans, who combined with the Democrats and took the appointment of the committee out of Boss Cannon's hands.

The Louisville Herald, which 2 month ago put the price of the daily down to one cent in Louisville and New Albany, has made a further announcement extending the low prices elsewhere. This means that the people of Kentucky can, for the first time, get a Louisville daily paper for a penny. The Herald's innovation has brought it a great response and its circulation has been largely increased.
The Herald wants agents in every town. Communications should be addressed to the Circulation Department.

The Owensboro Messenger, always conservative and classed during the night rider uprising on the side of the minority of local papers that stood for law and order, is now being led into the mistake of abus-ing Gov. Willson for using the military forces to suppress the night riders. If this issue is forced into the next campaign, the Republican party will gain more votes than it will lose. A great many Democrats will not vote for any man for Governor who even indirectly justifies night riding by denouncing the brave and patriotic services of a Governor—Republican though he was—who rose above party and broke up the lawless organization that cost Kentucky untold losses in many ways. The expenses of the campaign were reported to be $200,000 and the increases in the tax assessments of counties benefited by the soldiers paid the bill. No money was ever more wisely spent in Kentucky, than the sum paid to the heroic soldier boys who restored order and prosperity in the State.

$100 REWARD $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical community. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and restoring nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

urday, aged 71 years.

Clements at Home.

LaVega Clements will poll an enormous vote in Daviess county in the Democratic congressional primary on February 2. And why not?
He is a home man, which is not the only reason Daviess county Democrats will vote for him, but he is well qualified for the duties of the office. By the way, Daviess is not the only county that is going to give him a big vote.—Owensboro Inquirer.

IN NEW QUARTERS.

ed by mutual agreement Jan. 1, I will continue to do a real estate, loans and insurance business under the firm name of T. S. Knight & Co., office rear Waller & Trice, next door to Frank Rives' law office.

Joy of Aspiration.

To be truly happy is a question of how we begin and not of how we end; of what we want and not of what we have. An aspiration is a joy forever, a possession as solid as a landed estate, a fortune which we can never exhaust and which gives us year by year a revenue of pleasurable activity. To have many of these is to be spiritually rich.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Muscular Christianity.

Birmingham, England, was the home of prize fighting when the ring was patronized by literature and royalty. There was Bendigo, who became an enemy to all unrighteousness. "Wot's the matter?" he asked once, on being told that a gathering of men he saw were of that persuasion. He was told, "Don't believe in no God, don't they?" he shouted. "Here, hold my coat. I'll soon show 'em wot's wot."

Advice for Young Ladies.

It is superfluous to decorate women highly for early youth; youth is itself a decoration. We mistakenly adorn most that part of life which least requires it, and neglect to provide for that which will want it most.—Hannah More.

Origin of "Yonkers."

Patron Van de Donck, in the years after 1642, lived such a serene and robust life on his Hudson river estate that the Dutch villagers called his manor farm, "De jonkheer's land"— the gentleman's land; later compressed by the frugal English into "Yonkers."

The Golden Mean.

A certain English mayor, whose period of office had come to an end, was surveying the work of the year. "I have endeavored," he said with an air of conscious rectitude, "to administer justice without swerving to partiality, on the one hand, or impartiality, on the other."

Brooch from Lump of Coal.

A brooch made out of a lump of coal isn't so valuable as a diamond brooch, but it has the merit of rarity. An Englishwoman possesses one, which was carved for her by a miner, with the aid of a knife and file. The design is a star, showing up against a rough cast background.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

The Best.

An almost forgotten poet, Robert Hickly Messinger, quaintly wishes for old wood to burn, old books to read and old friends to talk with in an ideal old age, and he might also have added, old tunes to be played in the long twilights while he dozed and dreamed in his easy chair.

His Preference.

Five-year-old Bobby went visiting with his mother and, unexpectedly remaining over night, was obliged to wear his cousin Kate's nightgown.
The next morning he said tearfully:
"Mamma, before I'll wear a girl's nightie again, I'll sleep raw."—Harper's Weekly.

Bismarck's Drink Capacity.

Bismarck is credited with drinking one gallon of French brandy in a one-night session. Bismarck claimed that so long as alcohol wasted its effects upon the brain in keeping up sprightly thought and conversation it had little effect on the rest of the system.

Expressive.

"Of all the quaint expressions I have heard recently," said a club-woman, "none has struck me as more delightful than that of an English woman who told me that her daughter 'would never smooth out a room.'"

DISSOLUTION OF BURLEY SOCIETY

Sought in Suit to Be Brought in Few Days in Federal Court.

UNDER SHERMAN LAW.

Several Hundred Witnesses to Testify in the Case, Say Officials.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 8.—United States Secret Service men, who have been investigating the Burley Tobacco Society, asserted today that suit for the dissolution of the society, on the ground that it operates in violation of the Sherman law, will be begun in the United States District Court here in a few days.

The Secret service men have been operating from this city under the direction of W. H. Hoagland since October.

The government agents declare that several hundred witnesses will be brought from Kentucky to testify regarding the operations of the society in the burley districts. Witnesses, who claim that they were compelled to flee from Kentucky, will be summoned from Missouri.

HOW HOAGLAND WORKS.

Mr. Hoagland has his headquarters at the Haylin Hotel, but takes a run over to Kentucky every day or two. He has with him fourteen special agents from the office of United States Attorney General Wickersham, six of whom are former newspaper men. Mr. Hoagland himself was assistant city editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer, and was at one time war correspondent for the London Standard, and after that did a great deal of work for the New York Herald.

In addition to the civil suit, the United States grand jury at Covington will make an investigation of the criminal end of the night riders since when they prevent the Kentucky grower from shipping his crop to Ohio they interfere with interstate commerce because a large per cent. of the tobacco grown both in Kentucky and Ohio is shipped out of those States.

LONGNECKER AFTER VENGEANCE.

It is the hope of interested parties that the investigation of the night riders' work will reveal the names of the leaders and members of the mob that shot up the house of Benjamin Longnecker at Maysville, and if this is brought about pressure will be brought on the authorities of Mason county to punish them under the State law, and the government will also attempt to punish them under the Federal statute on the theory that when they shot up Longnecker's house they intimidated him so that he could not engage in interstate commerce with his tobacco.

VIGOROUSLY PUSHING PROCEEDING.

One of the men who is vigorously pushing the criminal proceeding is George Longnecker, of Maysville.
His wife was in the battle at the Longnecker home between the night riders and the family and a bullet passed through her dress. Longnecker goes heavily armed, his right hand constantly on a heavy automatic revolver, while in his left pocket rests a 45-caliber Savage pistol that can give a mule his death wound at 500 yards.

KNOWN MURDERER OF HEDGE.

The special investigators in gathering evidence make the claim that they have discovered the murderer of Hiram Hedges, who was killed by a band of night riders in Nicholas county. Hedges was called to his door at night and, though he promised to tear up his tobacco beds and raise no crop, some one in the crowd fired a shotgun loaded with slugs, killed him.

The government agents say they know the name of the man who fired the gun. He is, they say, in the regular army, and the War Department has been asked to locate him. If found, the intention is to demand of the Nicholas county authorities that they proceed against him for murder.

PREPARING FOR TROUBLE

The Secret Service men expect trouble before the government gets through, and they are prepared for it.

One of the strong points that the prosecution will try to bring out is that the Equity Society is in restraint of trade and that Cincinnati in particular has suffered severely because of the fact that instead of bringing their tobacco to this market the growers have built warehouses of their own.

The independent tobacco men are backing the national authorities in the suit, and their best lawyers will assist the United States.

The Equity Society will be defended by some of the most eminent legal lights in the country, including Senator Bradley, of Kentucky; former Senator Foraker, of Ohio; Elliott H. Pendleton, and Harmon, Colston, Goldsmith & Hoadley, the firm of which Ohio's Governor is a member.

Arrayed on the side of the independents and with the counsel for the government will be Richard P.
Ernst, Alfred C. Cassatt and Lawrence Maxwell. The District Attorneys of Southern Ohio and Kentucky will co-operate fully in the matter.

HAPPY WOMEN

Plenty of Them in Hopkinsville, and Good Reason For It.

Wouldn't any woman be happy, After years of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest,
The distress of urinary troubles, She finds relief and cure?

No reason why any Hopkinsville reader should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Miss L. A. Hester, 326 North Main street, Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "I believe there is little need of anyone suffering from backache when such an effective remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills can be had. The prompt and thorough relief which followed their use in my case has given me abiding faith in their merit. In the summer of 1903 I suffered greatly from a soreness and lameness across the small of my back and other difficulties arising from weak kidneys.
Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Johnson & Co.'s drug store, where all that was required to free me from the distressing pain in my back and restore my kidneys to a normal condition. I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills at that time and although four years have since elapsed, I still hold the same high opinion of them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan.

MRS. KATE JOHNSON

Passes Away at White Plains.

Mrs. Kate Johnson, wife of Mr.
L. H. Johnson, died last Thursday night at White Plains, after an illness of long duration, of dropsy.
She was 66 years old and was reared near Crofton. Mrs. Johnson was a member of the Presbyterian church.
She is survived by her husband and three children. One brother, Walter Seates, and two sisters, Mrs. E.
M. Barnes and Mrs. Mary Robinson, reside in this county.

NEGRO IS HANGED AT WILLIAMSTOWN.

Earl Thompson Pays Penalty for Assault on Mrs.
Roberts.

JUST ESCAPED LYNCHING

First Legal Execution in Grant County in Half a Century.

Williamstown, Ky., Jan. 7.—Earl Thompson, a negro, was hanged this morning for criminal assault upon Mrs. Ransom Roberts near this place last November. Three attempts have been made to lynch Thompson, and on the last occasion the negro was only saved from the mob when its members were dissuaded from their purpose by Circuit Judge Cammack, who promised that the death sentence upon Thompson would be executed within sixty days or less if the law was allowed to take its course.

The negro, who is only eighteen years old, recently confessed to his crime.

The hanging of Thompson is the first legal execution in this county in fifty years. Thompson's indictment, trial and sentence all took place within a space of a few hours on December 7. His attorneys did not take an appeal.

RECRUITING OFFICER

To Be Here Three Days of Next Week.

Sergeant Joseph Kresky of the U.
S. Army recruiting service, Paducah, Ky., will visit this city for a period of three days, Jan. 17-18-19, for the purpose of obtaining desirable men for the U. S. Army. Sergeant Kresky will make his headquarters at the Hill House, where he will gladly receive any one desiring information in regard to enlistments in the U. S.
Regulars.

MORGAN NOT PARDONED

But Is Taken to The Pen to Begin Sentence.

R. B. Morgan, col., who killed James Morris, a white man, last summer, and was given a sentence of three years for manslaughter, was taken to the Eddyville prison Saturday, after a delay caused by efforts to secure a pardon. A vigorous protest was filed following the application for a pardon, and the Governor has not so far granted a pardon.

FOR HIGHER PRICES.

Farmers in Dark District Not Satisfied With Prevailing Charges.

Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 7.—There is a spirit of by-gone days now in the tobacco district. For the first time in several years thirty-eight hogsheads of tobacco were sold on the breaks at auction this week, and the bidding by local and a number of out-of-town buyers was quite spirited. It made things in the big Ligon-Allen warehouse resemble olden times.

The leaf tobacco at this sale brought from $6 to $10.60, and the lugs from $4.80 to $5.60.

It is probable that the sales will be held one day in each week hereafter, and Tuesday will be selected.

Business is rather quiet in the prizing tobacco house district, although there are some few wagon loads coming into the city during bad weather. There are no buyers being sent out into the country, and the dealers are resting on their oars waiting for developments in the prices.

The prices that are being paid for loose tobacco are still pretty steep, and the dealers say they are not anxious to buy any more at the present prices and will wait awhile longer.

The farmers are holding on to their crops for higher prices, not being satisfied at the prevailing high figures. The dealers will buy but little at the prices asked for by the farmers and consequently the tobacco business will be rather at a standstill for a while.

It is reported that a number of farmers who sold their tobacco by contract sometime ago have been selling it to other firms on account of being paid a little better price.

Here and There.

FOR SALE—The life, Trial and Execution of Alonzo Pennington, near Hopkinsville, in 1846. Price 25 cents. C. B. Brewer, Fairview, Ky.

For many years science has studied liquor results; the whole world uses whiskey where a stimulant is wanted; in bad cases of sickness it does not injure nerves and tissues like cocoa wines and other drugged compounds. The HARPER brand is the best on the market. Sold by

Tooth Hints!

'When ought we to go to the Dentist?'

Many think it unnecessary to devoted particular attention to the teeth until the mouth is affected by broken or decayed teeth. Others give their teeth no attention until pain compels them. Every one who thinks a moment on the subject knows that we cannot masticate our food satisfactory, if one of the teeth is tender, inflamed or otherwise out of order, and that if this be the case, the mouth requires immediate attention.
